

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The Editors would like to provide special thanks to all the speakers, moderators, facilitators, and rapporteurs, as well as those people who submitted papers for the conference proceedings and to those who contributed to the conference exhibits. In particular, we would like to express our deepest appreciation to the speakers from our host county who welcomed the conference to Cape Town – the Honorable Marthinus van Schalkwyk, Minister of Environmental Affairs and Tourism, South Africa; the Honorable Tasnee Essop, Minister for the Environment and Planning, Government of Western Cape, South Africa; Judge Dennis Davis of the High Court of Cape Town; and Joanne Yawitch, Deputy Director General, Department of Environmental Affairs and Tourism, South Africa. We would also like to thank Professor Wangari Maathai for her spirited message delivered by video.

The Executive Planning Committee of INECE provided leadership and direction in the design of the program, selection of the speakers and facilitators, and identification of individuals from a range of nations who could provide practical contributions to the conference. In addition, Executive Planning Committee members actively participated in plenary and workshop sessions. The Conference day chairs – Catherine McCabe of the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency and Gerard Wolters of the Netherlands Ministry for Housing, Spatial Planning and the Environment – must be specially commended for their leadership throughout the week.

The conference would not have been possible without the commitment of Melissa Fourie of South Africa's Department of Environmental Affairs and Tourism, who provided invaluable guidance and support throughout the conference planning process. Additionally, Sheryl Ozinsky, Juliana Canham, and Fran Cox seamlessly managed the local conference logistics – organizing everything from the inspiring field visits to the afternoon at Kirstenbosch – and we emphatically thank them for their assistance. Other special thank yous go to the staff at the Vineyard Hotel, the Townhouse Hotel, Roopa Singh, Robin Adams, Mike Frizzell, Antonio Oposa, Jolene Sathorar of Sibanye Economic Empowerment, Rikki Shuttle, and Cape Town Tourism.

Funding of the Conference logistics, planning, and workshop development, and participant travel was provided by the conference sponsors: the United States Environmental Protection Agency, the Netherlands Ministry of Housing, Spatial Planning and the Environment, the United Nations Environment Programme, the European Commission, the British High Commission, Environment Agency of England and Wales, Environment Canada, International Fund for Animal Welfare, South Africa Department of Environmental Affairs and Tourism, Finland's Ministry of the Environment, Environmental Compliance and Enforcement Network for Accession, Asian Environmental Compliance and Enforcement Network, the Danish Agency for International Development, Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development, the United States Embassy, Royal Netherlands Embassy, the City of Cape Town, South Africa National Parks, Table Mountain National Park, Kirstenbosch National Botanical Garden, Peninsula Beverage, Fleur du Cap Wines, Glen Carlou Wine Estate, Muratie Wine Estate.

With great appreciation,

The Editors

Excerpt from the Proceedings of the International Network for Environmental Compliance and Enforcement's (INECE) Eighth International Conference, Linking Concepts to Actions: Successful Strategies for Environmental Compliance and Enforcement, held 5-11 April 2008, in Cape Town, South Africa.

Reproduction of this document in whole or in part and in any form for educational or non-profit purposes may be made without special permission from the INECE Secretariat, provided acknowledgement of the source is included.

The INECE Secretariat would appreciate receiving copies of any materials that use this publication as a source.

Opinions expressed are those of the authors and do not represent the views of their governments or organizations, the INECE Secretariat, or Cameron May.

Please access <http://www.inece.org/conference/8/> for the full Proceedings.

INECE Secretariat
2300 Wisconsin Ave, NW Suite 300B
Washington, DC 20007
inece@inece.org
<http://www.inece.org>