

SPONSORED BY

IMPROVING EFFICIENCY, EFFECTIVENESS & INTERNATIONAL HARMONIZATION OF COMPLIANCE ACTIVITIES IN EMISSIONS TRADING

DUBLIN, IRELAND
8 - 9 MARCH 2007

THURSDAY, 8 MARCH 2007

- 09:00 - 09:20 Welcome & Introduction to Workshop: Theme, Purpose, and Scope
- Day 1 Chairperson: Frank Convery, University College Dublin (UCD)
- 09:20 - 09:50 Keynote Address: Emissions Trading: Ensuring Compliance and Environmental Integrity in Climate Markets
- Keynote Speaker: Dr. Mary Kelly, Director General, Ireland EPA
- 09:50 - 11:00 Plenary Panel 1 and Discussion: Applying Lessons Learned from the Financial Community to the Carbon Markets Regulators
- Moderator: Frank Convery, UCD
 - Panelists:
 - Professor J.C.A. Gortemaker CA, Erasmus University Rotterdam
 - Xueman Wang, World Bank Carbon Finance Unit
 - Robin Smale, VividEconomics
- 11:00 - 11:15 Coffee Break
- 11:15 - 11:45 Special Topic Discussion: Update on U.S. Federal Legislation and Developments
- Facilitator: Joe Kruger, National Commission on Energy Policy
- 11:45 - 13:00 Plenary Panel 2 and Discussion: Critical Issues, Practical Aspects and Minimum Compliance Issues Needed to Allow Different Emission Trading Systems to Cooperate
- Moderator: Kelley Kizzier, Ireland EPA Registry
 - Panelists:
 - Franz Litz, New York, Regional Greenhouse Gas Initiative
 - Michael McMahon, BP
 - Derik Broekhoff, World Resources Institute
 - Jill Duggan, DEFRA

13:00 - 14:00

Lunch

14:00 - 15:15

Technical Working Groups on Best Practices (Parallel Sessions):

1 Compliance Process Under the Kyoto Protocol

The Kyoto Protocol has established a comprehensive implementation and compliance system, which includes reporting, verification and compliance procedures. The discussion will focus on the significant implications of the Kyoto compliance regime on the emissions trading market.

(Xueman Wang, World Bank and Conor Barry, UNFCCC)

2 Emerging Monitoring, Reporting and Verification Technologies and Methodologies to Ensure Integrity Across Regimes

(Bill Irving, U.S. EPA and Jeroen Kruijd, PriceWaterhouseCoopers)

3 Relationships Among Regulated and Voluntary Markets Across Borders (Kunihiko Shimada, Environmental Ministry of Japan and Pierre Boileau, Canadian Standards Association)

15:15 - 15:45

Coffee Break

15:45 - 17:15

Question and Answer Forum: How Can Structured Processes Enhance Monitoring, Reporting, Verification and Compliance in Emissions Trading: Trends in Best Practices and in Information Technology?

▪ Moderator: Ken Macken, Ireland EPA

▪ Panelists:

- Chris Dekkers, VROM
- Johan Pype, Tractebel Engineering
- Jeremy Schreffels, U.S. EPA
- Anne Marie Warris, Lloyd's Register

17:15 - 17:30

Concluding Remarks from the Chair

19:30 - 21:30

Workshop Dinner: Hosted by Mr. Dick Roche, T.D., Ireland's Minister for the Environment, Heritage and Local Government

FRIDAY, 9 MARCH 2007

- 09:00 - 09:05 Welcome, Day 1 Summary, Day 2 Goals
- Day 2 Chairperson: Lesley Ormerod, Environment Agency (England and Wales)
- 09:05 - 09:45 Keynote Address: Laying the Foundation for Trading Systems to Cooperate
- Keynote Speaker: Denny Ellerman, Massachusetts Institute of Technology (MIT)
- 09:45 - 11:00 Plenary Panel 3 and Discussion: Integration of compliance mechanisms in CDM and JI Projects, and other markets, to give emissions trading markets confidence to link
- Moderator: Kunihiko Shimada, Ministry of Environment, Japan
 - Panelists:
 - Conor Barry, UNFCCC Secretariat
 - Einar Telnes, DNV
 - Bob Shults, APX Inc.
- 11:00 - 11:15 Coffee Break
- 11:15 - 12:45 Open Forum Discussion: Developing a blueprint for building capacity and strengthening networks across the world to share best practices and lessons learned on building compliance in emissions trading systems and laying a foundation for compliance that allows different systems to cooperate in a way that ensures environmental integrity.
- Moderator: Kenneth Markowitz, INECE Secretariat and Earthpace LLC
- 12:45 - 13:00 Remarks from the Chair & Conclusion

