

Training Course on Compliance and Enforcement and Legal Aspects of Good Water Governance

An INECE/EPA Workshop on
Environmental Laws, Enforcement &
Compliance, and Indicators

4th World Water Forum Mexico City, Mexico

17 & 18 March 2006

Delivered as part of TheInstitute@WWF4
Class will convene at the *Comite Deportivo
Olimpico Mexicano (CEDOM) next to the Banamex Center*

The training course will be presented as a series of stand-alone modules. Participants are invited to attend the course for the entire training period or for the presentation of the module that best suits their interest.

Module	Topic	Date/Time/Location
Module 1	Building a Legal Foundation for Good Water Governance Concepts of Good Governance, Identifying Enforceable Requirements, Writing Enforceable Requirements	17 March 2006 8:00-13:00 Classroom #2 CEDOM
Module 2	Promoting Compliance with Environmental Laws Defining Environmental Compliance, Setting Priorities, Promoting Environmental Compliance	17 March 2006 14:30-19:00 Classroom #2 CEDOM
Module 3	Responding to Violations of Environmental Laws Compliance Monitoring, including Inspections and Self-monitoring, Methods of Enforcement, Calculating Penalties	18 March 2006 8:00-13:00 Classroom #4 CEDOM
Module 4	Designing Performance Indicators for Environmental Compliance and Enforcement Programs Benefits of Using Environmental Compliance and Enforcement Indicators, Best Practices, Designing Indicators of Effective Water Governance	18 March 2006 14:30-19:00 Classroom #4 CEDOM

Please refer to <http://inece.org/water/> for draft course documents and background information.